COLVIN'S OLD STAND.

THE LANTERN,
PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

as second-class mail matter.

TUESDAY, MAY 26, 1908.

We have received a copy of the Clemson college extension work bulletin on the eradication of the cattle tick, which is charged with causing what is known as Texas fever. This disease is caused by several different ticks and is said to cause more deaths of cattle in this state than all other diseases combined. At any rate, every farmer should read the bulletin. It can be had free by simply sending request and address to State Veterinarian, Clemson College, S. C.

H. L. Lord General Manager.

Mr. H. L. Lord, general manager of the Union-Butler Mills Co., has resigned to accept a position with Mr. Leroy Springs at Lancaster. In the new position Mr. Lord will have the supervision of the mill at Lancaster two for Mill and two at Chester, besides the supervision of the L. & C. Railway. He will enter upon his new position the first of next month.

The resignation of Mr. Lord will cause the following changes in the personnel of the community, and has established a reputation for untiring industry and thrift. It is with regret that his friends have learned of his determination to leave for Lancaster, Union Times.

Anders Woods Terrace.

The sale of lots in the Anders Woods Terrace last Friday attracted a good number of bidders and spectators, and the bidding was pretty lively. The Penny Brothers, twins, were the auctioneers. They are the same size, look just alike and talk in the same tone of voice. In selling the lots they both talked at once, and as if they were guided by the thousand words. Many lots were sold at prices which indicated a faith in the "Terrace." At the close there was a drawing for a free lot. The first name drawn was that of Mr. J. B. McDaniel, but he had left the grounds. Then little Miss Two Hood was drawn, and she became owner of the lot. A bag of coins was also distributed, the money being thrown around and picked up by the scrambling crowd.

Woods Alexander and Woods' evidently had faith in the value of their lots, as it is shown by the money they have spent in cement walks, not only along the front, but along the sides and back through the property.

David Day.
Walkerston camp U. C. V. will unite with the Daughters of the Confederacy in celebrating the centennial of President Jefferson Davis' birth at the opera house June 3rd. The program is not yet arranged but will be published later. As noted in Friday's Lantern, Dr. John Porter Hollis, a son of a Confederate veteran and of Chester county, will deliver the principal address.

William McCaw Dead.

A letter received by Mr. Thomas Cuskey told of the death of Mr. William McCaw, in Missouri. The letter was written on the 9th of May, and it said that the burial was to be that day. Mr. McCaw was a native of this county and was perhaps 70 years old. He, with some of his brothers and some other young men, went to Tennessee just before the War of Secession. He returned to this county with his wife and daughter some years ago and remained a few years, but later went west again.

By the way, his daughter, Miss Halassah, now writes as Mrs. Byrd.

A Sad Death.

Mrs. Napier Gross Mann, wife of Mr. D. E. Mann, aged 24 years, died Monday, May 18, 1908, at her home at Wallaceville, in Fairfield county, after an illness of five weeks with gas trouble. The burial was at Bethel Methodist church Tuesday, after funeral services at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. B. Sparks. Mrs. Mann was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gross, of Isaacville, and was married to Mr. Mann the 22nd of last December. Besides her husband and parents, she is survived by four brothers and four sisters. One sister, Mrs. J. M. Barber, lives at Wallaceville, and a half brother, Mr. S. H. Jackson, is a resident of this city. Her father reached her bedside on Saturday before she died and Mr. Jackson went down to attend the funeral.

Rates in Birmingham.

Col. J. W. Reed has received pretty full instructions about railway rates to the Confederate reunion at Birmingham, June 6 to 11. The same rates and conditions apply on all the railroads in this section. The round trip fare from Chester is $6.15. Children between 5 and 12 half fare. Tickets will be on sale June 6, and a good return on trains leaving Birmingham not later than midnight of June 20.

Stop-overs will be allowed, but those who stop over going must reach Birmingham in time to start on the return not later than the date of the final limit. Those who stop over returning must time their return so as to resume their journey at the last point of stop-over, not later than midnight of June 20. There can be no extension of the time limit.

Teachers in City Schools.

The trustees of the city graded schools met last week and re-elected all of this year's staff of teachers, except the following, who declined re-election: Misses Nellie Scherb, Janie Burns, Ethel Tenhet, and Mr. J. S. Harris. The teachers re-elected are as follows: First grade, Misses Nettie Spratt and Mary Thomson; grade 2, Misses Kate McLure and Helen Walker; grade 3, Misses Lily Brown and Frances Abell; grade 4, Misses Agnes Douglas and Kate Rosborough; grade 5, Miss Ida Todd; grade 7, Mr. W. B. Marlon; High School, Mr. J. M. Arliss; Superintendent, Mr. W. H. McNairy.

This leaves one vacancy in the fifth grade, one in the sixth grade, and two in the high school department.

Dispensary Case in Court of Appeals.

The dispensary receivership case which has been so frequently before Judge Pritchard in the United States court, in Asheville, during the past three months will be argued before the United States circuit court of appeals at Richmond today (26th).

Attorney Alf S. Barnard of Asheville, who appeared for the Fleischman company, one of the creditors of the State dispensary and consequently one of the opponents vitally interested in the litigation, will go to Richmond to argue the case for his client before the court, and Attorney General Lyon and Mr. B. L. Abney will represent the State's interest.

Chief Justice Fuller of the United States supreme court will be the presiding judge.

Another two district judges or one district judge and one circuit judge will sit with the chief justice. It is possible that Circuit Judge Goff of West Virginia, who has been unwell for some time, will be able to sit on the case and in such event Justice Fuller, Judge Goff and one district judge will constitute the court.

What has become of the city dog catcher? Every day we read about mad dogs and their doings, and yet there are a number of worthless dogs allowed to roam our streets. Our city authorities should see that our dog ordinances are enforced before we have a mad dog scare.—Allen Journal.

Scotch Whiskey Dazed Thaw.

New York.—Harry K. Thaw's extreme nervousness and his poor showing on the witness stand last Saturday at the close of the habeas corpus proceedings were, it was learned today, to the startling fact that he has consumed large quantities of Scotch whiskey, smuggled in and since he was at Mattawan, and that he has been in the Dundee county jail.

This fact was vouched for by Dr. Amos T. Baker, the acting superintendent of the Mattawan asylum in a statement made today. It was learned from another source that Thaw had had three large bottles of Scotch whiskey just before he went on the stand and that he was in almost a dazed condition when he sought to answer questions.

In connection with Mr. Baker's story regarding the condition of Thaw when he first went to Mattawan, it was recalled that Dr. Lamb, the superintendent of the institution, declared at the time that Thaw must have been given large quantities of whiskey while he was in the Tombs, preceding, during and after the second trial.

Dr. Frank McGuire, the Tombs physician, admitted that Thaw had been permitted to have a certain quantity of whiskey a day. Mr. McGuire denied that Thaw at any time had been permitted to have more than three ounces of the stimulant a day. One of his former lawyers declared today, however, that Thaw had received considerably more than three ounces on a number of occasions while he was in the Tombs.
